Professional Experiences

- 17.05.2016-current    PostDoc Researcher, PROMISE Project (Horizon2020), GESIS – Leibniz Institute for Social Sciences, Cologne (DE)
Tasks: The PROMISE project aims to explore young people's role in shaping society; past, present and future. Young people are often at the forefront of social, cultural and political change, often driven by their energy and creativity, but also by their frustration at the challenges they face. PROMISE intends to investigate young people's responses to these challenges, and seeks ways to transform this into positive social achievement. Through an understanding of the experiences, values and attitudes of European youth PROMISE will get to the heart of barriers and opportunities for social engagement. My tasks mainly regard the development of the analytical framework for secondary data analysis and writing comparative reports.
- 10/2015-30.04.2016    Quantitative Research Assistant, ArabTrans Project (FP7 Programme), University of Aberdeen (UK)
ArabTrans (<http://www.arabtrans.eu/>) is an international research project executing within the FP7 program of the European Commission. The aim is to look comparatively at the beliefs, values and behavior with respect to political and social transformations in 7 Arab countries through use of comparative sample surveys.
Tasks: I work under the supervision of the quantitative Research Fellow/Quality Control Officer (Professor Pamela Abbott). I've been part of the development of the project's overall analytical framework and drafted the quantitative analysis for different work packages: I contribute to the analysis of core project data – with particular focus on longitudinal analysis – for the transformation reports. I developed a Longitudinal International Indicators Database concerning the economic, social and political transformations in the 7 Arab countries studied. Other tasks refer to the design and the Quality Assurance of 7 country reports aimed to describe the economic, political and social attitudes and behavior in the 7 countries after the Arab Uprisings; co-authorship of a methods report; supporting partner's teams working on transitional reports providing quantitative analysis. I created presentations for internal seminar and submitted proposal for international conferences.
- 07/2015-current    Communication Officer, European Values Study
Tasks: regularly updating of the EVS website (<http://www.europeanvaluesstudy.eu/>) with contents that are produced together with the members of the Executive Committee of EVS (mainly with the secretary) and posting on EVS social media.
In addition I am invited to attend to the General Assembly of EVS.
- 06/2013 - current    Member of the Scientific Committee of Resilience Onlus, Gavardo, Italy.
Tasks: I evaluate the scientific content of training modules for second-level training on psycho-social support in contexts affected by crisis, conflicts and natural disasters. I also collect information regarding host countries, coordinate the training evaluation process, write the evaluation reports.

- 06/2015- 09/2015 Evaluator and Trainer, Resilience Onlus, AVSI Lebanon (Nabatiye, South Lebanon) in the frame of the AVSI Lebanon- UNICEF project: “Multi-sector assistance for vulnerable Syrian refugees and Lebanese host communities in South Lebanon through an integrated and holistic approach”.
- Tasks: Local Staff training on promotion of gender equality in PSS activities; Gender Based Violence; Intercultural approach for social workers.
Training evaluation. Contribution to writing the manual: “Psycho-Social Support in Middle East”. (Two missions in South Lebanon, monitoring at distance).
